There is no joy in this world equal to the liappiness of motherhood. A woman finds ample compensation for her trials and worries and bothers in the soft, clinging little body nestling close to her own—in the trustful clinging of the little hands, and the love light in the little eyes.

A woman's health is her dearest possession. Good looks, good times, happiness, love and its continuance, depend on her health. Almost all of the sickness of women is traceable directly or indirectly to some derangement of the organs distinctly feminiue. Troubles of this kind are often segrected because a very natural and proper modesty keeps women away from physicians, whose insistence upon examination and local treatment is generally as usciess as it is common. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do more for them than 99 doctors in 100. It will do more than the hundredth doctor can unless he prescribes it. It is a prescription of Doctor Pierce, who for 30 years has been chief consulting physician of the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, at Buffalo.

"I lost six babies by untimely bitths. In the eighth month of my seventh pregnancy, as usual, I was taken ill. The family doctor was called. He said there was no help for me. The baby must be born. I grieved exessively. I persuaded my husband, against the physician's advice, to get me Dr. Fierce's Favorite Prescription. Four doses quieted my pains. That child was born at full time. It is three vears old, and I am the happiest mother in the world."

One day I watched. He wandered in a sort of annoticeable way toward a thocked old log, across which the fence ad been built.

Suddenly, though closely watching, I est sight of my little friend. But before I had recovered from my surprise I was astonished to see him in the cotato field. "Well, now, that is very strange," I aid. "How did he do it?" I went to the old log, and, lo, it was hollow. The whole trick became quite clear to me. I went into the potato field to drive the end of the log so that he might get out the same way he got in. Here he had the best of me entirely. He either could not or would not see the log and maintained such an air of ignorance on that point that I had to give up the task in despair, drive him out by the gate

The next day I made up my mind to play a trick on him, and I did. I wont out very early and moved the log just a little so that both ends would be in the home field."

Then I stood at some distance off and watched. I never was more amused in my life. He separated himself from the other pigs and then went toward the old og and get in and through it and (as for the pointees. But, fluding none, he caned somewhat puzzled.

From a letter written by Rev. J

Gunderman, of Dismondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discov ery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store Regular size, 50 cts. and $1.

The Relietrope. The heliotrope is an emblem of devotion. The idea was probably suggested by the curious habit presented by this flower of turning its face toward the sun. Moore's poetical lines about the sunflower turning on her god where he sets the same look that she turned when he rose is not founded on fact. The sunflower is not a heliotrope and does not turn to face the sun. Old School Politeness. "Uncle Simon, what is old fashioned politeness?''

A Sure Ad.

"Have we had a protest from any one recently?" asked the sultan as he lit a fresh cigarette. "No, your majesty," replied the grand vizier. "No nation has deigned to cry out against the continuance of the Ottoman empire?" said the sultan, scowling. "None, your highness." "Then have some more Armenians killed at once. I will not be neglected in this shameful manner." - Londor
